Other Technical Publications

‘Housing Business Planning in an Uncertain Environment’ – This book looks in depth at how local authorities can update their housing revenue account business plans. Business Planning has been an important element of the management of council housing for some time. However, we are now operating in a very uncertain political, economic, social and technological environment. There is a minority government; the Housing & Planning Act will not be implemented in full; the funding of supported housing is changing; and the implications of the vote for Britain to leave the European Union are not clear. This requires a new way of business planning including a robust approach to the development of strategy, financial forecasting, sensitivity analysis, risk management and contingency planning. 100 pages. Published in 2017.

‘Developments in Local Authority Housing Finance in England 2017’ – This book looks in depth at current developments in local authority housing finance in England – especially the implications of the outcome of the 2017 General Election for local authority housing, the Autumn Statement of 2016, the Housing White Paper, whether the Housing & Planning Act 2016 will be implemented in full, the future funding of supported housing, the vote for Britain to leave the European Union, the affordable housing programme, the public finances, welfare reform, homelessness, rent reductions and development. 100 pages. Published in 2017.
