All You Want to Know About Local Authority Housing Finance 2017

March / September 2017

We are holding our 2017 series of 'All You Want to Know About Local Authority Housing Finance' from March to September. This series of seminars is designed to give an introduction and overview to this important subject and is fully up to date with all developments.

This seminar is designed for people who are not experts in housing finance, but who need to understand the basics and achieve an overview of what is going on. It is suitable for councillors, housing managers, tenant representatives, finance staff who have limited experience of local authority housing finance and others who realise that an understanding of housing finance can place them at an advantage!

Aster House, an Extra Care Elderly Scheme provided by Oldham Council.

Do you think that a working knowledge of local authority housing finance would put you and your colleagues in a position of advantage?

The session will answer the following questions:

- How does the Housing Revenue Account work?
- How does the Housing General Fund work?
- How does the Housing Capital Programme work?
- What is going on in the world of local authority housing finance?
- What are the Financial Opportunities and Threats for Local Authority Housing?

The session is fully up to date and refers to recent government policies on the funding of supported housing, the sale of high value council homes, annual reductions in social and affordable rents of 1%, voluntary near market rents for tenants on high incomes, welfare reform, the Welfare Reform and Work Act, the Housing and Planning Act; and the implications of 'Brexit'. The session is accompanied by a very useful hundred-page book that is designed for reference after the session entitled:

Our speaker Adrian Waite is well known for his in-depth knowledge of this subject and for his ability to present information clearly.

Adrian Waite is Managing Director of 'Adrian Waite (Independent Consultancy Services) Limited'. He is a qualified member of the Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy (CIPFA), an Associate member of the Chartered Institute of Housing and a Fellow of the Institute of Leadership & Management.

Adrian is a former member of the CIPFA National Council and the Housing Panel. He was a member of the working party on funding mechanisms that was part of the Communities & Local Government and Treasury review of the financing of the Housing Revenue Account. He is also a former Chair of Impact Housing Association.

Adrian's recent work has included evaluating the impact of self financing; preparing housing business plans and financial 'health checks' of housing revenue accounts; advising on risk management and asset management; developing procurement and value for money strategies; evaluating efficiency gains; carrying out value for money reviews; developing financial modelling and advising on 'new build'; reviewing and introducing new leaseholder and tenant service charges; carrying out and evaluating housing stock options appraisals; acting as lead associate consultant in a Local Government Association peer review; preparing expert witness reports for judicial reviews and acting as an Associate Housing Inspector and Independent Tenants' and Residents' Advisor. He is therefore well placed to explain local authority housing finance as it is seen in central and local government and its impact on tenants.

After graduating from Oxford University with a First-Class Honours degree, Adrian joined West Yorkshire Metropolitan County Council as a Trainee Accountant. Appointments at Leeds City Council and Newcastle on Tyne City Council gave Adrian experience of the finance of every local government service. In 1990, he was appointed Assistant County Treasurer at Staffordshire County Council. As Finance Director, and then Strategic Director, at Copeland Borough Council between 1993 and 1998 he became conversant with every aspect of the finance and strategic management of housing. He left Copeland Council in 1998 to work as an Independent Consultant. Since then he has worked with central government, local authorities, housing associations, tenants' associations, universities, professional bodies and others in England, Scotland, Wales and South Africa on a variety of financial and strategic issues that affect housing.
